TO OUR FACULTY

We, the members of the Class of 1958, bring to a close the first journey of our lives, our high school career, and anticipate the greater pilgrimage of adult life. We are better fitted to advance successfully through its strenuous yet enticing paths because of the standards which you == our teachers==have set before us. In commemoration of your ideals and your friendship, we dedicate this book to you. You have given your best that we might continue the road of life with only the highest aims of success. In striving to climb toward the lofty peaks revealed by you we shall make our lives richer, freer, and happier.

For all that you have given us, for all that you have done, we thank you.

Foreword

Time may blot out the fondest recollections,
Tide may wash away the footprints,
Memory may fade and grow dim;

'Til the happy comradeship, the familiar faces, the lovable personalities, be lost awhile,
in the haze of yesterdays;

And we leave, I to you, and you to me, this token of our school day years. Lest we forget.

So come, let us wander once more through the halls of Brockton High School where we shall never again walk in reality, but always in fond memories of high school days.

The door is open wide . . .

...let us enter

From quarter of eight in the morning until dismissal, Brockton High School corridors are filled with groups of students laden with books and exchanging hurried hello's as they rush to and from classes and activities. These corridors hold many memories for us—the mad scramble when the lunch bell rang, the excitement and anticipation before a big game, and all the other happy, wonderful moments we had when we as students roamed these halls.

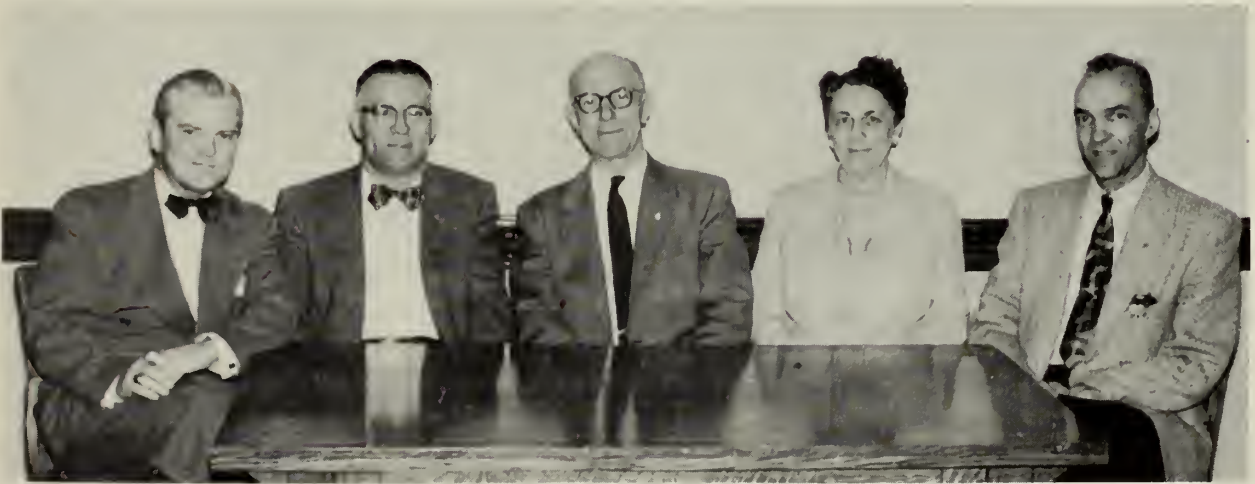

Never again in reality can we capture the eagerness and enthusiasm of high school days; never again as students shall we pass through these corridors. So let us, as we peruse this book, walk just one more time through the halls of Brockton High, where in spirit we shall always be present.

Administration

Alton E. Johngren, Assistant Superintendent; Edwin A. Nelson, Superintendent.

John F. Ryan, Administrative Assistant; Carl R. MacPherson, Master; Ralph S. Frellick, Headmaster; Bernice Sylvester, Dean of Girls; Russell B. Ford, Director of Guidance.

Let us begin our walk in the main offices. It is here that we find an integral part of the B.H.S. family, our administration. Theirs is the task of guiding, counseling, and being ever-constant friends to the many students who seek their advice.

Senior Class Officers

Frances Smith, Timothy O'Leary, Audrey Jones, Brenda Erickson.

Executive Committee

Joseph Sanford      James Bourque
Patricia Pupello      Brenda Booth      Margaret Burke

Now on to Room 114 where, under the guidance of Miss Pauline Hoit, our class officers have spent many long hours amid colored streamers, paper flowers, and dance programs. It is in this room that we dreamed of soft lights, sentimental music, and innumerable good times; these dreams came true.

Junior Class Officers

Second row: Jeffrey Fletcher, Alan White, President; Kenneth Sampson, Robert Saad, Treasurer.

Sophomore Class Officers

Second row: Lawrence Ritcey, Francis Casieri, President; Lynne Davidson, Vice-President; Jane Anderson, Secretary; Daniel George, Treasurer.
Third row: John Cahill, Douglas Grize.

Following in our footsteps are the officers of '59 and '60, whose duty it is now to uphold the standards and traditions that have been set before them. To these, our successors, we leave an empty bank account to be filled with class dues, an abundant supply of colored paper to be used for future dances, and our sincere wishes for success and good fortune.

Student Council

 Second row: Jane Anderson, Betty Colberg, Joanne Seney, Marion Piscitelli, Carol Thomas, Susan Gilson, Judy Bursaw.
 Third row: Katherine Centrella, Nancy Berglund, Linda McKay, Charlotte Cicoro, Jean Cloutier, Katherine Puffer, Joanne Harris, Ann Lanoue.
 Fourth row: Adena Howard, Sharon Keith, Leslee Baker, Margaret Richardson, Claire Kvaraceus, Janet Norcross, Betsy Beckford, Ann Dunnington, Mary Wood, Douglas Grize.

Room 21 is our next stop. Here we find the Student Advisory Council, led by Dr. Ralph Frellick and Miss Bernice Sylvester. This year, under the able leadership of President Richard Arruda, the council prepared the Student Guide, sponsored the Hoopsters' Hop to honor the basketball team, and directed a most prosperous drive for the Junior Red Cross.

Yearbook Staff

First row, left to right: Roberta Zibel, Annette Piscitelli, Claire Baker, Edwin Wiesner, Ann Chase, Kathleen Creeden.
Second row: Sandra Saba, Jean Sebelia, Lenora Grosso, Carol Allaire, Carol Aseph Carol Goldrup Paula Gruntmeyer.
Third row: Judith Stone, Sharon Young, Marjorie Guttler, Jean Cloutier.
Fourth row: Ann Wallen, Sandra Shave, Sally Keith, Marsha Brown, Judith Mechaber.

Long after these corridors were empty, when most lights had long since been turned out, one light remained—in Room 11. Frantically trying to meet their early deadline, the yearbook staff wrote, rewrote, tore up, and wrote again page after page of endless copy. The pages that you are now turning represent their accomplishment, cherished memories of high school days preserved forever.

"Brocktonia" Staff

First row, left to right: Fred Carleton, Alan White, Elaine Densman, Joan Kvaraceus (co-editor), Judith Stone (co-editor), Judith Mechaber (co-editor), Lee Globerson.
 Second row: Phyllis Rainville, Joan Cleary, Shirley Osowick, Joanne Schultz, Lois Katz, Eileen Berenson, Brenda Gebhard, Brenda Booth, Mary Blee, Marsha Brown, Jean Sebelia, Patricia Pupello.
 Third row: Alfred Galante, Elizabeth Beckford, Claire Baker, Sandia Smalley, Ruth Paine, Jacqueline Nesti, Andrea Beal, Sandra Saba, Betty Nevins, Cynthia Holmes, Theresa Dunn, Jean Cloutier.

 Sixth row: Anne Lanoue, Claire Kvaraceus, Joanne Lindgren, Nancy McAuliffe, Sally Loan, Marie Therrien, Virginia Stork, Linda Watkins, Sandra Smith.

Another room occupied long after all others have closed their doors for the day is the Journalism Room. This is the place where "Brocktonia" is planned and developed, where last-minute news is hurriedly called in, and where activity never ceases. This year editors-in-chief, Joan Kvaraceus, Judith Mechaber, and Judith Stone were proud to have Columbia University bestow a second-place award on "Brocktonia" for its excellence among school publications.

Library Monitors

Second row: Miss Helen C. Converse (librarian), Barbara Brides, Janet Kundzicz, Carol Grize, Mary Villa, Mary Jane Callahan, Sheila Corcoran.

Other members not able to be present: Patricia Fleming, Alfred Galante, Deanna Gazarian, Beverly Lang, Barbara Latham, Claire Levitan, Barbara Lordi, Jean Mueller, Lorraine Perrotta, Vera Richman, Sandra Smith, Elizabeth Stevens, Mary Wood, Ellen Yafe, Elaine Yenovkian, Lucille Yenovkian.

Now on to the Library where we find our Library Monitors amid stacks of books, magazines, and filing cards. Under the direction of Miss Helen Converse, Monitors perform such duties as preparing classroom loans, checking out books, collecting fines, and assisting students to find information. This hard-working group helps to make the library a cheerful place in which to work.

Dues Collectors

Third row: Carol McGarry, Jane Butler, Joanna Hays, Jane Duggan, Sandra Saba.

The jingle of coins sounded to the tune of urgent appeals for money informs us that we are approaching the headquarters of our Dues Collectors. Although these students meet in Room 111 each Monday to make the returns for their respective homerooms, they can be found almost anywhere prodding, pleading, and persuading.

Part-Timers

Third row: Ann Ross, Irene Pickard, Gail Dunford, Charlene Fowler, Ann Duggan, Joyce Ippolito, Barbara Jones, Pearl Frenberg, Grace Weatherbee, Arlene Pickering, Joyce Lucas, Beverly Powers.

The next stop on our retrospective tour is the Commercial Department. This is the home of a group of girls known as the Part-Timers. These students have performed many services for B.H.S. and the surrounding junior high schools. The Part-Timers are divided into two groups—Group A and Group B. While one group works in regular positions, the other attends classes. Through this program the girls have learned, by invaluable experience, business procedure in an office.

Dramatic Club

Second row: Carolyn Dunford, Patricia Pupello, Jean Sebelia, Judith Stone, Brenda Booth, Brenda Gebhart.
Third row: Sandra Shave, Mary Blee, Marilyn Pearson, Joanne Foster, Irene Wilbur, Julia Paulding.
Fourth row: Marilyn Leck, Deanne Gazarian, Elaine Ramos, Frances Smith.
Fifth row: Christine Briggs, Irene Pickard, Gail Dunford, Janet Norcross, Shirley Estabrooks.

Lights! Camera! Action! Yes, all these are employed by the Dramatic Club which holds its regular meetings in Room 21. The club, which is led by Miss Beatrice Bosworth and Miss Rose Condon, affords an opportunity for students to practice dramatic skills and display acting talents.

Band

Second row: Ruth Ellen Levine, John O'Keefe, Ann Moynihan, Lynda Zuckerman, Joyce Bryant, Mr. Walter Smith (conductor), Molly Mae Levine, Claire Levitan, Kathleen Creeden, Patricia Iervolino, Bernice Levine.

Third row: Paul Cerce, Richard Kucinski, Susan Farren, Sally Osborne, Judith Mechaber, Harriet Mechaber, Linda Heyl, Susan Gaffen, Linda Morse, Marie Amulette, Ellen Yaffe, Frank Stoddard, Ann Ruth Jacobson.

Fourth row: James Sullivan, T. Edward Sullivan, John Cannizzaro, William Washburn, Alan Dunham, Robert Donovan, James Magoon, John Card, Walter Rozum, Bruce MacAfee, Claire Baker, Sandra Smith.

Fifth row: Melvin Cohen, Edward Cicchese, Robert Bruce, Karl Anderson, James Bourque, Paul Stonehouse, Kenneth Sampson, Richard Erickson, Wayne Karlson, John Hooper, Peter Johngren.

The roll of drums, the clashing of cymbals, a flash of red and black, and it is the B.H.S. Band marching triumphantly across the field! Their music, which we have heard at parades, football games, and assemblies, will remain in our hearts, vibrating and living forever, reminding us always of Brockton High School.

Orchestra

Second row: Mr. Walter Smith (conductor), Margaret Burke, Molly Mae Levine, Patricia Iervolino, Susan Gaffen, William Washburn, Ann Ruth Jacobson, Paul Sellstone, Bernice Levine, Lynda Zuckerman, Robert Bruce, Walter Rozum, John O'Keefe.

Wherever we find the Band, our School Orchestra will not be far behind. Under the direction of Mr. Walter M. Smith, we heard the orchestra play at assemblies and at our class play—the Boston Pops has nothing on them!

Girls' Glee Club

Harmonics

Second row: Diane Fishman, Janet Marshall, Betsy Ohlsson, Naida Jones, Judith Hawkes, Lorraine Purdy, Roberta Sundling, Sandra Johnson.
Third row: Meredith Lays, Patricia Cowan, Peggy Burke, Audrey Jones, Mary McGrath, Roberta Stone, Carol Rabnowitz, Joan Peterson.

The Harmonics can also be found practicing way up on the fourth floor. As a result, through our hallowed halls float strains of melodious music. Music, such as was presented by this group at assemblies, the Christmas Pageant, and the Brockton Orchestral Society sponsored "Carmen," was ably directed by Robert A. White.

Galloneers

Accompanist: Todd MacAfee.

Third row: Fred Carleton, David Wahlgren, Ronald Schaub, Robert Boysen, Richard Erickson, Douglas Todd, David Forbes, Gerald Miller.

And last, but certainly not least, before we leave Room 40, we meet the Galloneers, Brockton High School's men in green. Though classes may come and go, there will always be a group entertaining under this name. The Galloneers is a singing group comprised of twenty talented young men chosen from the male chorus and directed by Mr. Rodney F. May. This personable group sings for various clubs and P.T.A. meetings throughout the area.

Girls' Sports Council

Second row: Miss Brooks (advisor), Gloria Riccio, Diane Desautels, Diane Reagan, Rena Zipeto, Sandra Morgan, Judy Densmore, Sheila Cribben, Janet Smith, Mary Hallisey, Sharon Cushman, Jacqueline Davis, Frances Meliseo, Sandra Saba.

And now let us descend to the girls' gymnasium where we meet an enthusiastic and spirited instructor and her group of sports-minded young ladies. Who are they? None other than "Our Miss Brooks" and the Girls' Sports Council. In this activity, girls master refereeing and the rules of each game and also learn the important precepts of sportsmanship and good living.

Hi-Y

Second row: Richard Price, Milton Gale, William Pagell, Bruce Hayden, Charles Updegraph, Edward Snyder, Peter Johngren, Kevin Lynch, Mr. Mal Brooks.

Although we shall not find the next group meeting anywhere at B.H.S., we shall certainly come upon many of its members as we pass through the halls. The Brockton Hi-Y Club is composed of boys from our high school, and they meet on Wednesday nights at the Y.M.C.A. Hi-Y activities range from listening to speakers on various subjects to holding a Christmas party for some of the children of our city.

Fall—leaves, bright gold and scarlet—brisk Autumn afternoons—bleachers packed with cheering students—shakers waving high—anticipation of the year to come—such recollections we hold dear. Only in memory can we walk again through those happy, golden days.

Football Team

 Second row: Coach Frank Saba, Line Coach Chester Millett, Robert Murphy, Peter Masaitis, Donald Ortendahl, Robert Dorner, Douglas Todd, Francis Yafate, Frank Carreiro, William Pierce, Back Field Coach Donald Kintis, Coach Jack Parker.
 Third row: Joseph Fossella, James DiCarli, Edmond Centralla, John Hughes, Archie Magee, Ronald Schab, John Brophy, Richard Webby, Robert Welch, Frederick Carleton.
 Fourth row: Philip Feeney, Daniel Creedon, Charles Bardelis, Robert Linquist.

Despite their fine play against tough opposition, the football team won only three games and lost five. The losses again included our old nemesis, Weymouth, thus making for another sad "Turkey Day." Co-captains Bob Rubicine and Tony Gonsalves made the All-Scholastic team.

Cheerleaders — Basketball

Second row: Muriel Turner, Nancy Condon, Jessica Keith, Carol Berglund, Judith Bursaw.

Never-tiring exuberance was the watchword of this year's cheerleaders. Under the leadership of Miss Doris E. Brooks, the girls led the student body in spirited cheering on Eldon Keith Field and at Boston Garden. As much a part of the team as the boys themselves, these sprightly misses have creditably upheld the rules of good sportsmanship.

Cross Country

The cross-country team, coached by Mr. Harry Reuell, again had a winning season with a record of five wins and three losses, plus an eighth place in the South Shore Meet and a fine seventh-place finish in the State meet. The victories included a revenge win over Scituate.

During the brisk fall days cries of excitement and tension rise from Eldon B. Keith Field where many sophomore, junior, and senior girls participate in the intramural field hockey program. Powerful serves and smashing returns keep the girls alert and add to the excitement and enjoyment of the game.

Senior Girls' Basketball Team

Winter—ice flying from sharp silver skates—a roaring fire—hot chocolate and sandwiches—strong bonds of friendship—long evenings with books—all these we shall forever cherish in remembrance.

As traditional as our New England winters and their blustery winds is the senior class play, which usually takes place in December. This year, in the presentation of "Galahad Jones," our class proved most admirably that knight-hood is still in flower. Edward Sullivan played the leading character, Tommy "Galahad" Jones, who believed that chivalry must not die. Needless to say, the play proved to be one of the most successful events of the year.

Basketball Team

 Third row: Fred Stetson, Gerald Gorman, Edward Tuite, Peter Bernard, Christos Giannaros, Edward Wiesner (manager).

Under the leadership of Douglas DeCosta and the fine coaching of Mr. Gordon McKernan, the 1957-58 Brockton High basketball team finished runner-up in both the Suburban League and the Eastern Massachusetts Tech Tourney. Also, it is believed that George Mapp has become one of the highest scorers in B.H.S. history by scoring 425 points during the season.

Christmas Pageant

For one hallowed hour during the Christmas season, the students, teachers, and their guests listened to sacred and traditional music as they viewed tableaux from one of the oldest stories, the birth of the Christ Child. The immortal story was read as the audience, moved by the glory and splendor of this inspirational presentation, sat in a hushed silence. Mr. Robert A. White directed the robed choirs, and Miss Rose H. Condon directed the dramatics.

Hockey Team

Second row: William Corbo, David Alger, William Murphy, John Hughes, Lawrence Willis, Edmond Centrella, Richard DiMazzio.

Third row: William O'Leary, William Shinnick, Michael Russell, Charles Apjohn, Robert Bouchard, Robert Pritchard, Francis Dexter.

Hockey returned to B.H.S. after an absence of five years, as this year we became a member of the South Shore Hockey League. The long absence and the lack of enough practice time can be given as reason for the record of two wins, seven losses, and one tie. Acting-Captain Rick Alger was elected to the All-Star team of the League, and Larry Willis made honorable mention. Mr. Chester S. Millett was the coach.

Sophomore Basketball Champions

Mr. Gerald Plumley, Gilbert Johnson, Richard Marshall, Vidas Venckauskas, Lawrence Johnson, Herbert Jones, Paul O'Sullivan.

Table Tennis Champions

Kenneth Goldstein, James Howard, William Haskell.

Mr. Howard T. Sandrock and Mr. Gerald Plumley this year conducted another successful intramural sports season. During the fall they organized a basketball league with games scheduled several times weekly. Composing the winning team were Gilbert Johnson, Richard Marshall, Vidas Venckauskas, Lawrence Johnson, and Paul O'Sullivan.

Following the completion of the basketball league, a table tennis league was organized. Emerging in first place after many weeks of matches was Kenneth Goldstein. In second place was James Howard, and William Haskell won third place honors.

Broad Jump Champions

Roger Bousquet, John Simmons.

Chin-Up Champion

David Miller

Following competition during gymnasium classes, finals were held for the championship in broadjumping and chin-ups. The winners in broad jumping were Roger Bousquet and John Simmons. David Miller was the winner in the chin-ups.

Senior-Junior Prom

Winter will always recall to us poignant memories of our Junior-Senior Prom—the hall, softly lighted; silver and blue crystals sparkling in the shadows and dramatizing the winter theme; silhouetted forms of couples swaying to the sentimental music; merriment dancing in the eyes of all.

Swimming Team

Second row: Peter Masaitis, Leslie Lucier, Peter Johngren, Howard Newton, Earl Hopkins, Ronald Chandler, Coach Americo Deaculis.

Third row: James MaGoon, George Conefrey, Robert Foster, William Dentch, Donald Carpenter, Kenneth Goldstein, Charles Cousins.

It was a rebuilding year for the swimming team as it compiled a record of two wins and six losses. Co-Captains Robert Richards and Michael Shippee scored 43 and 38 points respectively.

Hoopsters' Hop

This year the Hoopsters' Hop was doubly exciting because it came on Valentine's Day. Here, in the Girls' Gym, the Student Council joined with the student body to salute Mr. McKernan's Tech-bound hoopsters. For seniors, this was our last salute to a great team—a team we shall always remember for its valiant come backs before an astounded crowd at the Boston Garden.

Spring—rain on the rooftops, pounding, rhythmic rain—the verdant earth freshly bathed, scented with the subtle fragrance of a thousand flowers—mornings, sparkling with the promise of a perfect day—a soft breeze stirring the grass ever so slightly—something stirring, too, within our hearts—for it is Spring, and we are young.

Tech Journey

Enthusiasm, spirit, and tense anticipation were in the air; Mr. McKernan led his team to the Tech Journey once again. And our team was the greatest! Playing before a crowd of thousands at the Boston Garden, our boys scored basket after basket, rendering us eligible for the final meet with Somerville. That was a heartbreaker; we lost—but we shall never forget our team which played so valiantly, and neither shall we forget all the fun that we had at Tourney Time.

Faculty-Varsity Game

One of the highlights of the basketball season was our annual extravaganza, the Faculty-Pupil Game. The purpose of this traditional event was to raise money for the scholarship awarded by the Brockton Teachers' Association to a student entering the teaching profession. The evening was a hilarious success. Our cheerleaders recruited a new member, an interesting blond, none other than Mr. Harry Reuell. Dressed in fashionable pre-war outfits, our faculty, as usual, put up a good fight. However, though somewhat hampered by the teachers as they ran madly about, the seniors were able to score their usual victory.

Senior Prom

There is one evening in every young person's life when dreams come true. And so it was for us on the night of our Senior Prom. Soft lights reflected couples swaying to the romantic music. The air, perfumed with the scent of many corsages, was truly in keeping with the theme of the evening, a quaint Dutch garden. Our prom was the last dance at which our class would be together as a group. We knew this, and the evening became an even more important occasion.

Varsity Baseball Team

 Second row: Alfred Galante (manager), Roger Caron, Robert Smith, David Twomey, Mr. Norman B. Nash (coach).
 Third row: John Studley, Merton Goeres, Ronald Kelliher.

Under the coaching of Mr. Norman B. Nash, the baseball team competed for the first time in the Suburban League. Hampered by poor weather conditions, the boys found tough going during the first half of the schedule and lost five of the first seven games. Co-Captains James Stevens and Timothy Twomey both gave outstanding performances on the mound and in the batters' box.

Facing tough opposition, the track team won only one of its first three meets. However, there were fine performances by Captain John Masefield, George Mapp, Archie Magee, and Eugene Marrow. The team was aided by the addition of Mr. Gerald Plumley to the coaching staff.

The tennis team opened the season determined to retain its South Shore League title for the new coach, Mr. Martin J. Badoian. As the season progressed, it appeared that the only obstacle in their quest would be Hingham, but Mr. Badoian was confident that his team would win. This year, two seniors, Captain Frances Belanger and Manager Edwin Wiesner, led a team of underclassmen to a successful season.

Class Ode

Words and Music by LIBBY JONES

The gate of life now opens wide
For us to enter through,
To tread the path of cherished dreams
We strive to make come true.

The world will offer much to prove,
The challenges are strong,
May God's great wisdom give us strength
To choose what's right or wrong.

The lessons learned, the friendships won
In happy childhood days,
Will help to build our future lives
And guide us on our ways.

So may we always keep in mind
Our faith in all that's good,
And help create a world that knows
The joy of brotherhood.

REFLECTIONS

By JUDITH STONE

Alone, I climbed a distant hill
And gazed upon the sea below;
I watched the restless, seething tide,
The waves of Life that break and flow.

And on the sandy shores of time,
Imprinted by the men before,
Were footprints where they once had walked
And left their marks upon Life's shore.

Thought I

Men of valor, men of learning,
Nothing but your prints remain;
Nothing lasting or enduring
To show your struggle not in vain.

Ours is but a fleeting moment
Lost in the labyrinth of Life;
Who will ask, or will it matter
If we fall amid the strife?

Who will judge, who will question,
When the deed is done and o'er,
When the ages turn to aeons,
When all is washed by sea on shore?

Saw I

Cities on the dim horizon,
Stretching upward to the sky,
Built through blood and tears and labor
Symbols of aspiration high.

Ever seeking men and women,
Thirsting, questing, restless youth
Learning answers found before them
To an enigma some call Truth;

Steeple towers toward the heavens,
Altars built on humble sod,
Churches, temples for a nation
That humbly kneels to a common God.

Knew I

Cities do not last forever,
Be they built on stone or clay,
For in the spacious realm of ages,
A lifetime's but a passing day.

But Life is not without its meaning,
What we accomplish does not die.
Love and goodness are enduring,
These will live though time goes by.

Nations fall and are forgotten;
Time may level works of man;
But God will know, and He will question
If our lives reveal His plan.

Yes, fulfillment—the crowning reward of study and effort. We have walked together through Brockton High School for the last time. Now, diplomas in hand, we go forth our separate ways. In a sense, perhaps, this is an ending, for high school days are but memories inscribed on the pages of our yearbooks and in our hearts. But truly, this is a beginning, for we go forward to meet the most important test of all—Life. May it hold for all of us health, happiness, and all that is good.
